A Girl Goes to Jail.

Emma Gessler, of Martin's Ferry, who was arrested on complaint of her mother, Mrs. Annie Gessler, charged with being out of good fame, was sent to jail for one year in default of $100 bond for her good behavior, by Squire Arkle yesterday.

Hats!

This is a funny memorandum on the blotter at police headquarters yesterday, the funnier because it is true: "A man in the alley by the Wheeling bakery has a barrel full of dead rats, and he refuses to remove them. Market street officer will see that he does. Nobody knows why the man saved up the rats. It is certainly a novel collection craze he has."

Disorderly Dago.

Pine Ponsamea, a Slavish laborer from Fairmont, Mike Walker, also a dago from the same place, and John Damon, a ditto from Dittoville, were run in by Lieutenant Terrill yesterday afternoon for disorderly conduct at the Baltimore & Ohio station. They had a few dollars each, and two of them had tickets for Fairmont.

Five Cases Yesterday.

In the police court yesterday morning John Wolf, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs, and paid it. Harry Hill, drunk, was dismissed on promising to "straighten up." Fritz Long and George Muldoon, who had Annie Brown, alias Annie Slane, at Long's house, in the absence of his wife, and Officers Scully and Ritz pulled them in. They were fined $2 and costs apiece, and the two men paid, while Annie went to jail for thirty days.

Rare Old Money.

James F. Mills, of the First ward, Martin's Ferry, has a forty-five dollar bill made in 1779, which is quite a curiosity. The old bill is three by four inches, and on it appears the following: "Forty-five dollars. The bearer is entitled to receive forty-five Spanish milled dollars or an equal sum in gold or silver, according to a resolution of Congress of the Fourteenth of January, 1779. Printed by Hall and Sellers, 1779." The bill bears the signatures of William Stretch and John Leacock. Mr. Mills prizes the bill very highly. He refused dollar for dollar for it.

A Lucky Escape.

Dr. Van Wagener had a narrow escape yesterday from a serious accident. He pulled to the right to pass a wagon going in the same direction that he was going, about two miles west of Bridgeport, on the National pike, and just as he was passing the driver of the wagon used his whip to strike his own team, and in doing so accidentally struck the doctor's horse over the head. The lick frightened the doctor's horse and it suddenly shied off. Seeing that he would upset he quickly pulled his horse down a steep bank about fifteen feet high. The horse, buggy and the doctor plunged down the bank through a wire fence, and piled up in a heap at the bottom. The buggy was considerably damaged, but the doctor and his horse came off without a scratch.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

Three old Alleged Liabilities Investigated last Night.

A meeting of the Council committee on claims was held last evening, at which three aged and gray claims against the city were once more talked about, inquired into and laid over for "more light." Mary Gervin presented a claim in October, 1891, that by the raising of the grade of North Main street her property at 333 Main street had been damaged to the extent of $600. She said the water ran into the lower story of her house. She was present, with L. S. Jordan, her attorney. The committee asked about the case, debated whether to pay the $600 or raise the house, and deferred action.

Dorothy Hans, who owns property at Jacob and Forty-second streets, claimed in September, '91, that a bad sewer had flooded her premises, putting her to the expense of pumping out the cellar several times, and causing sickness in the house. Dr. Ford, who was present, said there was sickness in the family due to the sewer. Mr. Coniff represented the claimant. The sewer was repaired some time ago. The committee deferred action.

Peter Mauer has a claim for $70 for hauling pipe for the board of public works in 1886. He wants interest on that sum, too. His claim was long ago investigated by the board, who rejected it. He sued the city in a justice's court, and lost the case. Col. Arnett, his attorney, and Mr. Mauer had considerable difficulty in understanding each other last night, and apparently the members of the committee did not quite understand either. At any rate, they deferred action.

The True Laxative Principle of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company.

BIG REPUBLICAN MEETING

In Ritchie District last Night—Colonel Kemple Addresses the Club.

The campaign was formally opened in the Ritchie ward last night at Nolte's hall. The Black Eagle drum corps paraded the streets, and with its splendid martial music aroused the people to a high degree of enthusiasm. At 8 o'clock the hall was packed, with many standing. The speaker of the evening appeared under the escort of that veteran old Republican, Squire J. William Schultze.

Squire Schultze was elected chairman, and in a few remarks introduced the speaker, Col. Jacob Kemple, who with little preliminary entered into a discussion of the issues, national and state, devoting the greater part of his time to the tariff, with eloquent, practical and humorous illustrations, giving a number of points and votes from the Congressional Record, showing up John O. Pendleton's course as inimical to the interests of the farmers, manufacturers, skilled and common laborers of this district. He spoke from party history, and challenged contradiction, and handled the Democracy of West Virginia without gloves, on their promises, practices and general hypocrisy. The Colonel spoke for an hour, and was frequently interrupted with cheers and applause, and closed with a splendid peroration on national and general success for the party.

Mr. Sam Boyce was called upon and spoke briefly on the hopeful outlook in the state and county.

The meeting then adjourned, with cheers for the speaker and candidates. Ritchie district is now fully alive, and will give an increased Republican majority.

NORTH BENWOOD REPUBLICANS

Have a Fine Meeting, and Form an Organization.

The Republicans of the northern section of Marshall county met last night at the Doggs Run school house, for the purpose of organizing a campaign club. There was a good attendance, and the meeting organized by calling John L. Davis to the chair. After short addresses by Mr. Davis, Dick Robertson and John Devine, permanent club officers were elected as follows: President, Samuel Sloan; secretary, William Nolte; treasurer, Charles Holderman. A finance committee was appointed. Arrangements were made for the equipment of a volunteer drum corps, and the meeting adjourned to meet again next Saturday evening at the Drover's Home, at which time the officers of the marching club will be elected. Col. Jacob Kemple and other orators will be present at the meeting next Saturday, and a big turnout is anticipated.

A GREAT RESPONSIBILITY

RESTS ON US AS LEADING

Boys' and Children's Outfitters!

AND WE REALIZE IT.

Your confidence is too free placed in our reliability for us to let up on our watchful care, even for an instant. In a few days all juvenile Wheeling will start to school and many are the fruits of our great harvest of dressing they will take along with them. The boys and children were never better dressed than they can be this season. There is a greater variety to select from, and every grade has had its STANDARD raised. NOT THE PRICE. You want tough qualities, but you want them in genteel patterns, gracefully cut and sewed together with the strength of iron.

WE ARE SUPPLYING JUST THAT SORT.

To the best of our knowledge, we haven't a doubtful wearer in all the thousands of Suits we've got to show. So sure are we of it that we make our guarantee a gratuity with every purchase. If you ever have cause for complaint, the return of your money pays the penalty PROMPTLY.

WE BEGIN WITH KILTS!

And cater for every size, every shape, every age of boy, until he graduates into our Men's Department. We have searched every fashion mart and brought its best, its CHOICEST NOVELTIES away with us. Almost every feature of our stock is confined to our EXCLUSIVE SHOWING, and we had to stand on our tip-toes to mark the qualities, THE PRICES ARE SO FAR BELOW THEM.

If you will take the trouble to make a few comparisons the light of superiority will shine still stronger on them.

Mail Orders Receive Prompt Attention.

STRONG, Liberal, Enterprising!

Will the Hub NEVER LET UP?

If you have a Suit, Trousers or Overcoat to buy you cannot find a better or safer place to get it than right here. Our Clothing has a reputation for reliability and that much sought for custom-like appearance second to no other establishment in the United States. The appropriate and rich trimmings, the slightly and artistic finish and the exquisitely symmetrical shape of the garments we keep are pretty well known in this neck of the woods, and it is right and just that our reputation is so good and patronage so liberal, for is there a house anywhere that from the very start, a little over a year ago, has been more painstaking and enterprising? The intense earnestness which we have shown is of that vigorous sort which has commanded success by deserving it.

Is the cry of our competitors. We're putting more quality to small prices than we ever did before or they ever can. Our great Bessemer Boys' Suit, strictly all wool, double seats and knees, sewed with best linen thread, wear like steel, at $5.00, has forced them in the background. They are too upish in their charges and too backward in their charges to strike the popular chord with the public.

We have Jersey Suits we are showing this season. An immense line of Children's Jersey Suits at prices that has already long since made this one of our most popular departments.

Thousands of pairs of Knee Pants, made from remnants, at about half the price the same goods can be bought for in the regular way.
